A beautiful Internal Affairs detective, Secada "Scout" Llevar, asks Shane to help investigate, and he agrees after learning the original homicide detective was Brian Devine, a ruthless cop with whom Scully has a bad history. What begins as a routine review quickly turns into something much more deadly. The case is abruptly shut down by an LAPD deputy chief, and Shane begins to suspect that for unknown reasons the prisoner really may have been framed by the police.

You only watch catch up TV, not live TV. If you never watch a live programme and only watch a show after it has been broadcast via a channel's online player such as iPlayer (as opposed to watching it recorded on a digital recorder), then you don't need a TV licence. This might sound like an easy way to get out of paying mike pennel jersey 145.50 a year but TV Licensing advises that, if you want to avoid receiving the letters that it sends to unlicensed addresses, you should make a declaration to TV Licensing saying you only watch catch up services and never live television (you'll be refunded for the time remaining on your licence if you paid in full).
