This all isn't just to lament the younger generation of quarterbacks or say they suck. Newton is good, a team can obviously win with Wilson, and Luck still has plenty of time to turn it all around. It's to make the case that, with most of the 30 something QBs still producing, that we're in the later days of a golden age of NFL quarterbacks.

Clearly, it was time to walk off our lunch. Luckily, we were steps away from Zocalo, the main square in the historic district and adjacent to the Cathedral. Since we were there in late November, the Christmas decorations were being prepped but were not quite up.

During this time, Matt McCoy (no relation) was officially listed as the number three quarterback behind Vince Young and Matt Nordgren. When Brown chose to play Matt McCoy[25] in four separate game situations where Texas had a commanding lead, confusion arose as to which McCoy was in the game. Many sportscasters mistakenly referred to Matt McCoy as Colt McCoy, as Colt was the more widely known player.[26] The following year, with Young forgoing his senior year to enter the NFL and Nordgren graduating, the position of starting quarterback for the defending National Champion Texas Longhorns came down matt forte jersey to a competition between redshirt freshman Colt McCoy and true freshman newcomer Jevan Snead.[27].

The original concept for Under Armour was born out of necessity, as Plank was the self proclaimed "sweatiest guy on the football field". Frustrated by his sweat soaked cotton t shirts' inability to keep him dry and comfortable, he started the hunt for a material that would wick the sweat from his body to make him lighter and faster.
