"We have to adapt to the rules. The hard part especially for the safeties is when they're catching the ball and the guy is going down, you've lowered your target, but he continues to go lower. Now you have to try to, in about the time it takes a golf ball to come off a club face, to move your target to another spot, which is almost totally impossible.

Before Levy accepted the position, he made conditions for his employment. These conditions included that he be hired before the Hunter Group Report was released, that the BOD be considerably reduced in size and that the BOD stay out of the day to day operations of the hospital. Even as he talked to the search team, he knew the responsibilities and his own abilities.
