The record would stand through 2013 (43 years later), when Matt Prater of the Denver Broncos broke it with a 64 yard field goal. Dempsey's achievement is made all the more remarkable by the fact that he was born without toes on his right foot (which he kicked with). This Saints victory, however, would be the last for the season; they lost their last six games to finish 2 11 1, the worst record in the young history of the franchise.In the 1971 NFL Draft, the Saints owned the second overall pick behind the Boston Patriots.

Unfortunately, I don't think that's going to happen. The last time the Rams were in the playoffs in 2005, the Falcons were the team that beat them and for some reason, I feel like things are going to come full circle with the Falcons knocking them out of the playoffs again. Wait, would that even be considered full circle or would full circle be if the Rams won this time? I'm not sure, but I'm picking the Falcons..
