But you just can't tell what those Cumberland players have up their sleeves. They may spring a surprise. Be alert, men! Hit 'em clean, but hit 'em hard!"[8][9] However, even Heisman relented, and shortened the quarters in the second half to 12 minutes each instead of 15.[9]Since World War II, only a handful of schools have topped 100 points in a college football game.

With the stadium being built with public funds he would partially control the newly added convention space, for which the stadium would also have. As far as the tax payers of Clark County, for which I am one, it almost a wash if the money is diverted from one project to another. Yet I think this is something that the private sector should have to tackle on their own.
