The Buccaneers started the Lovie Smith Era off on a low note, losing on opening day to Carolina, then losing in the last minute to the Rams in week 2. In week three, the team was humiliated on a nationally televised Thursday night game, 56 14 to division rival Atlanta. Smith stated afterwards he was "embarrassed"[6] by the performance, and said the loss was so terrible to the team, that it would "leave a scar."[6].

At age 22, that took some stones because Baertschi had no control over his destination. He could have been thrown an anvil instead of a life preserver. It proved the latter because he was reunited with his former junior spencer paysinger jersey coach Travis Green, who turned christian hackenberg jersey the winger from a project with the Utica Comets into a bonafide NHL player.
