One of the United States most popular sports, and a top 10 sport throughout the world, it looks as though tackle and flag football could be Olympic sports by the year 2024, but issue obstacles still remain for that to become a reality. First we'll walk through some reasons why the road to getting American Football included into the Olympics has not been an easy journey, followed by why we believe flag football to be the logical solution and choice as a future Olympic sport. With the large numbers of participants on each team, the "gender equality" formats where both men and women participate in every sport, and the compressed 3 week schedule that would be tough with a more physical game like football and rugby.

After Anthony told owner in waiting Josh Kroenke that he still wanted out of Denver during a Sunday meeting, the Nuggets appear done trying to sell their All Star forward on a bruce carter jersey contract extension. Kroenke's son tries to woo Anthony Aug 23, 2010This wasn't a productive, nor particularly pleasant, meeting and multiple sources said it could turn out to be the point of no return for Anthony and the organization. Sources insist it's no longer a matter of if the Nuggets trade Anthony, but when, where and for whom he's traded for."It's almost a given they're going to move him." said a front office executive who's talked with the Nuggets and Anthony's agents with CAA. Between the agents' bullying and Anthony's dismissive disposition in Sunday's meeting, sources said Nuggets owner Stan Kroenke, Josh's father, finally made a stand with CAA.Keep it up, and the Nuggets will never do a deal for one of your clients again. Try to dictate terms of a trade and we won't move him. Keep up the heavy handedness and you'll get a war.Kroenke has decided to deal with CAA in a way most of the league is too fearful to try.
