The NBA eventually took notice of the criticisms and managed to persuade CBS to eliminate its original halftime show. In its place, came human interest shows about the players (similar to the ones seen on the network's NFL pre game The NFL Today). There also was a possibility that CBS would start televising a single national game on Sunday afternoons..

And the National Football League has finally brought America out of the devastating Greater Depression. A new book on the market is called "Let's Win One for the Crumper: A Quarter Century of Political Football." The book chronicles the exploits of Crump, who did not win the White House in 2016. So he bought it instead.
