I don see that as a concern. Some parents will prevent their kids from playing but most will let them. I don see why players can sign waivers agreeing not to sue the league. Because teams are a significant part of most organizations today, it is common for educators to use team assignments to help students learn about course concepts and team processes. Unfortunately, students frequently experience a number of problems during those team assignments. Studies have shown that most students working on team projects rush into the task without first examining member strengths, sharing personal expectations, setting common goals, ascertaining levels of commitment, agreeing on processes for communicating and decision making, and deciding how to measure and control contributions from members.
