Backup Josh McCown's strong performance subbing for the injured Cutler elicited calls to re sign the journeyman but didn't sway Emery. During a four game stretch as the starter late in the 2013 season, McCown had nine touchdown passes against one interception and posted three consecutive games of at least 348 yards passing with a 102.4 passer rating. When Cutler was healthy enough to return, many fans called for first year coach Marc Trestman to stay with the hot hand.
