"It's one game at a time regardless of where you win. It's the first team to four." Of course getting off to a good start will help the Thunder in this one, and playing with force, intensity and physicality can put the Spurs on their heels. Once the game starts to flow forward, however, the Thunder will have to execute play after play to get stops and generate high percentage buckets. The top priorities for the Thunder will be playing a clean game on offense by limiting turnovers, then getting back in transition and stopping the ball.
