I have two Hauppage 1600 tuners and Win 7Pro32 bit 4 GB Ram Q6600 with HD4850 graphics card. I had thought it was a graphics driver issues maybe but since you have an nvidia card it leads me to believe it may be a codec issue or tv tuner driver issue, have you tried replacing the microsoft default decoder? I have read about people experiencing this problem with avermedia tuners as well which again leads me to believe codec or decoder issue within media center. If you find out how to solve this problem please do share.

Howman said a particular stumbling block had been the NFLPA's request for a research project to see if their human growth hormone test was accurate enough on black players. "It's a bit far fetched so the scientists and the statisticians say but that's what they are hanging out for," he added. "But all the information we've got, and all the studies we've done, tells us it really doesn't warrant that approach.".
