Garoppolo has TWO career starts in a very QB friendly offense which he had THREE years to assimilate. Remember how great Ryan Mallett was going to be when he got a chance to start full time? As crappy as the QBs who come into the league lately aside from Mariota and Carr (who were my boys in their respective drafts if you recall) they aren worse than Jimmy Garoppolo in terms of potential. Neither are the top three or four kids coming out this season, at least one of which will be available in the second round of the draft..

"You sit in a locker room as a plebe in the service academies and you realize that these are the guys you'll be with for the next four years," said Palmore, now a senior co captain at Navy. "No transferring or redshirting. This is the group, and you do everything together.
