Gouraige has proven to be a bit of an impressionable recruit, so Florida getting what looks to be his final official visit is seen as a positive. Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney still has his in home to use, which likely comes after Gouraige takes his official to Florida. The weekend of February 2 is also open for Gouraige to take another visit, perhaps Auburn, a team that was very involved in this recruitment not long ago, can convince him to visit before signing day..

It provides extensive introduction to the growing body of literature in the rising field of economics of sport. To correct one other false narrative that is always regurgitated on this and other sites: Colin didn't opt out of a guarnateed contract; he opted out of a NONguaranteed contract after John Lynch and Kyle Shannahan told him that he would get cut. He opted out to find another team to sign with before camp but never did because he was blackballed) so what you are saying is that a team with a terrible QB depth chart made a decision to cut Kaepernick? So why in gods name do you think any other teams would sign this guy? The worst team in the league, with the worst QBs on their roster in the league were going to CUT HIM. Let that sink in before you wonder why other teams with better QB situations than the 49ers didn run out to sign the guy..
