Just make it a timed OT period, whether a full 15 minute quarter, or one shortened to 7 minutes. Whoever has the highest score at that point wins, and if neither team does, then the game goes into OT 2, and so on. Sure it extends the game, but it makes more sense, if you are advocating to change, to simplify the rules, not complicate them by making it sudden death in one case, and the ability to match scores in another.
