I never thought of this as a reason why EA doesnt give career mode attention. It never occurred to me that they think career mode would decrease its revenue by distracting players from FUT. That makes me concerned. "Look at him run the ball, he just trucked through the defender, one left to beat, and he's tackled no, wait, he threw a lateral to his teammate and SCORE!!!!!" In America, most people would say that was a great run by Reggie Bush or Adrian Peterson or some other football running back. If this was broadcasted in New Zealand, it would most likely be a rugby play. Rugby is not typically watched in America, the rules are unclear to most and Americans believe rugby looks like football without pads.

100 % agree with the challenge everything pertinent to the play aspect. Especially the Pass interference calls and these critical calls. Dont favor the non PI calls but if they are reviewable then perhaps the officials will be more apt to throw julian howsare jersey them.
