Harvard guy makes a bonehead play. Everyone talks about how Jets quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick is brilliant, with his fancy schmancy Harvard degree, but Fitzpatrick may have made the dumbest play of the day yesterday: With the Jets down by seven and only a few seconds left, Fitzpatrick threw a completion to the middle of the field. The Jets had no timeouts, so the game ended with them trying and failing to get set to spike the ball.

As it turned out, Wickens only got to drive in the free practice on Friday before Aleshin got his situation sorted. The seed was planted, though, and when Mercedes announced it was pulling out of DTM after 2018, Wickens knew it was time for a change. The first step, of course, was getting all kinds of advice from his josh mccown jersey old buddy Hinch..
