I also agree they don need to form a union. A union would only benefit those at the head of it and the lawyers, and Jill says she isn doing this for herself but she sure sounds like she would want to head the union and she would draw a salary. In essence, it sounds like she wants back in the game and can be a cheerleader so this is her way to make even more money than the girls she wants to represent..

Together they'll solve the mystery, even if it kills them.
