I don believe any taxpayer monies should be given to private for profit companies unless they are providing a service that benefits the bulk of the taxpayers (utilities companies, infrastructure construction companies, etc.) Entertainment like the NFL do not fall into that category. The NFL could take 10 percent of revenue and build a new billion dollar stadium in each NFL city (1 per year) or renovate existing stadiums (2 per year) and still make an enormous profit. They don do that because they can extort that money from the public coffers of cities with corrupt politicians and we the people allow it to happen..
