The Buccaneers are flying under the radar as one of the most disappointing teams in the NFL, and pinpointing why they've fallen so short isn't easy. They're in must win territory against NFC South rival New Orleans, on the road. The Saints defense that got lit up earlier this season has handled its business against lesser offenses, and while the Bucs offense shouldn't fall into that category, it's there right now (fourth in yardage, but 18th in scoring and 29th in rushing).
