For many young athletes growing up, surpassing their parents in strength and athleticism is a huge moment in their childhood. For a future first round pick in the MLB Draft, that moment may come a little bit earlier, but that doesn't make it any more monumental. Jordon "Jo" Adell, a high school outfielder from Ballard High School in Louisville, Ky.

The impact of the company's implosion was immediately felt on Monday as workers at the Midland Metropolitan hospital being built near Birmingham by Carillion were locked out and sent home. The hospital, together with another in Liverpool, is at the centre of the problems that have beset the business. Both are substantially delayed and over budget..

For that, he grateful. On Dec. 14, 2016, after successfully completing a grueling stress test, Cook was cleared to play again for the Cavaliers.. But we were a couple minutes away from having that be real. Thankfully, we were able to avoid it and we didn't really get into where I had stuff that was starting to die off or anything. We were able to save pretty much everything.
