Personal view is I be standing on the 50 yard line with my hand over my heart, Koetter said, via Stroud. What I believe in. You got plenty of guys that believe in that but again, we not all the same. How would you build the ideal player? We decided to do exactly that by taking the head, eyes, arm/hands, body, and feet of a great player and assembling the ideal specimen at eight different positions. We also decided that you could only use one aspect of each player no double dipping allowed. This edition covers tight ends..

PC I've had this conversation with many skaters, American and Canadian. Number one is attitude. The attitude is different in the US. Luck was named the Orange Bowl MVP after throwing 4 touchdown passes in Stanford's 40 12 win over Virginia Tech.[20] Luck led the Pac 10 in pass efficiency for the second straight year with a quarterback rating of 170.2. He also led the conference in total offense with 3,791 yards, in passing yards with 3,338 yards, and in touchdown passes with 32. Luck rushed for 453 yards, a record for Stanford quarterbacks, with three runs of over 50 yards.[21] Luck's 32 touchdown passes are a new Stanford record, breaking the old record of 27 held by John Elway and Steve Stenstrom.
