Anyone who has ever used stickum knows it doesn take long for the effect to wear off. Dust or dirt from the ball, even oils from teammates hands, anything you touch gets on the stickum and glazes it over creating a false, more slick skin over your real skin. Reapply? Yes and with the same but diminishing returns.

"I'm a builder, I'm a developer. I'm someone who wants to take something that hasn't been too successful and take it someplace it hasn't been before. The men's team has so much potential. In the 70 and 80 this would have been regarded as a slobber knocker. When the mouth piece flies out and you see the spittal protrude from the lips is what defenders dreamed of in those days. The score board does not show it but at least the Packers know they played the Bears.
