Despite spygate and now this I still think he is one of the best of all time, but yeah his reputation is likely to take a permanent hit. I wouldn look at him as negatively as Barry Bonds or some of those cheaters but I not going to give him a pass either. Most of the best players in any sport push the limits and many never get caught but Brady seems to have been caught here.

This didn't make any friction between the monarch and the parliament, but now the monarch had people and places to go to in times of need. The only problem however, is that some monarchs, like Queen Elizabeth, have problems with Parliament, which causes arguments and turns people against each other, ending in catastrophic results. Of course, the monarch was still in the stronger position for obvious reasons but one thing that pegged the monarchs back, and it happens to be a big problem, is that when a monarch is in need of money, his or hers first port of call is to raise or make taxes, giving the monarch that much needed money. The parliament, however, were the voices of the people also, meaning that if the monarch willed to impose taxes, they'd have to get past them first.
