So, they can always claim that they are losing money. If they can show that they are losing money I would feel like something has to be done to make it profitable for all parties. Let's be honest the real superstars of the league make more money from endorsements than basketball salary, that is another thing that people don't understand.

If the possibility of a swap ever makes its way into the meeting room, the question becomes how much money would Spanos need (in addition to getting the Rams) to pull the trigger on a trade. Surely, there a sufficiently large number that would get him to do it. The question is whether that a number Kroenke would offer and whether the rest of the owners would brandin bryant jersey work with Kroenke and Spanos to make it happen by not putting any thumbs on the relocation fee scale.
