Seriously though, it is revolting that a man would leave those kind of marks on hos child, or would strike a loved one violently. Yet, the whole idea of companies passing judgment and imposing discipline for things that happen outside of work is getting ridiculous. This what the legal system is for..

Think about how hard that is. Seriously, think about that. Throw Jameer Nelson on the court and no one can guard their man. Please don't let the comparisons fool you this is no one trick pony. I say this because alot of people will read this and just think that Jon Scheyer is a three point specialist like Reddick. No!!! Scheyer has a much better all around game.

The last two weeks, two penalties that were called in games that drew national attention were publicly announced to be in error by the League office, however the Officiating Department later graded the calls as correct. This has caused confusion for NFL officials as to what the League does and doesn't want called, the Referees Association said in a statement. Of football operations Troy Vincent, who said, "Baker didn't do anything wrong with that hit.

They need to play with their God given abilities and leave steroids out of this beautiful game. Over the last twenty to thirty years' baseball has become a tainted game through the use of steroids.
