Then the infamous Facebook inbox message came about how he wanted to get to know me better and by the following semester we were dating! He was the school's running back and I was his biggest cheerleader! We actually parted ways and I went and got my master's and he played in the NFL. We remained friends and kept in touch occasionally, then after several years passed, I ended up in Texas (where he is from) and found out we were living about two hours away from each other. We drove and met up every weekend for like three months; it's been a little over two years now since we got back together and we literally picked up where we left off.

After an All American career at the University of North Carolina (UNC) (1978 1981), Taylor was drafted by the Giants as the second overall selection in the 1981 NFL Draft. Although controversy surrounded the selection due to Taylor's contract demands, the two sides quickly resolved the issue. Taylor won several defensive awards after his rookie season.
