Big Tobacco smear is especially pernicious and unfair because the truth is that there are few institutions in American life that do not have some intersection with the tobacco industry at some point, however devoid of meaning, Karp contends, pointing out that a search of the 14 million documents from tobacco litigation archives revealed between the t—shirts Times and the tobacco gabe marks jersey industry connections far more concrete than the phantom connections contrived by the times purporting to the NFL to the tobacco industry. Instance, the league found: (1) board memberships between the Times and Philip Morris (2) directors who had been partners at law firms that defended tobacco companies (3) directors who were connected with research firms that did studies for Big Tobacco (4) fundraising letter to the Tobacco Institute asking for the purchase of a $25,000 table at an event chaired by the Times publisher and (5) one hundred million dollars in tobacco advertising the Times accepted long after the Surgeon General first warned of the link between smoking and premature death. Letter also challenges the contention that the NFL deliberately concealed concussion data from 1996 through 2001.
