By the way, the NFL REALLY needs to cut the exhibition/preseason games down to two. If coaches can make up their minds about roster cuts after two 60 minute preseason games, then they not very competent. And since the exhibtion games are all about dollars for the owners, why not do this: trim the preseason games to two, then add two dakota dozier jersey games to the regular season.

But once science explained everything, not a single peep in public regarding the situation. Those leaks were to cover their backsides and keep the attention on the Patriots and not on the NFL. We as customers of the NFL should demand an explanation from the NFL.

In 1921 this was revised to only count games involving two league members, thus allowing non league exhibitions but still effectively disallowing exhibitions between two league teams. This rule had a direct impact on deciding the 1921 championship, in which the losing team had insisted, both before and after, that the game only be considered an exhibition. In 1924, the league again changed the rule to declare games held in December or later to be exhibitions.

15. 16. 17. It's not unprecedented. During the 2008 09 season, other clubs complained after Calgary placed Rhett Warrener on waivers, then put him on long term injury, where he spent the season.
