The NBAs slow death march to the end of the season with 2 3 teams this past season very clearly tanking in hopes of getting the superstar to lead them out of 20 30 win purgatory to become a perennial playoff team is an embarassment to the sport. The NBA should hold a true lottery and give all teams, xavier coleman jersey or possibly just the non playoff teams 1 ball in the hopper with everyone having an equal chance at 1. Sure it would stink if a good team gets another star gift wrapped, but beats 1/10th or more of the league laying down.

But these seven men, like so many other activists before and certainly after them, are not settling for the forcible conclusion of a movement jeff adams jersey that, at least for two football seasons, made people who'd rather talk about literally anything else talk about racism. After it became clear that efforts to work with the NFL were more about getting players to stand up than acknowledging their fight for equality, they decided to look outside the league for leaders. Increasingly frustrated with ownership, the group is planning to meet with Kaepernick this month in New Orleans to plan the next steps for a movement that's grown beyond what any of them ever expected.
