Sports should be based on talent and skill without any type of medicine to enhance a player's game. If athletes are allowed to use steroids, then sports won't be used as a means to show off an athlete's "god given" talents but a challenge to become stronger and more. It is then that steroids emerged as a performance enhancing drug.

But dig a little deeper. The Titans are only one game above.500. And while they have won two in a row, beating up on the miserable Indianapolis Colts and escaping the winless Cleveland Browns in overtime isn't the best outlook and especially not after Mariota rushed himself back from injury, throwing one touchdown and interception over the course of the odd two games..

They must work to make their team better and the owners are somewhat penalized by needing to spend the full cap space. The team the wins the superbowl only needs to spend 50% of their available cap space. Most winning teams are going to spend close to the full amount, but this gives a better chance for parity as the better teams can siphon more cash to the owner (rewarding them for putting together a good team) but doing so will hurt their ability to compete.
