As far as parity goes this has definitely hurt that as well. At least in the west because the Cavs will most likely cruise to the finals agian. If Durant had stayed with OKC the west would have had 3 or 4 teams that had a realistic shot at a championship with the Spurs, OKC, and the Clippers having a punchers chance of beating GS but now its hard to imagine any of the teams beating the warriors in a 7 game series.

Says Stephen White, a former Vols defensive lineman and seven year NFL veteran: "Plenty of Vols fans were furious. I really do believe the fact that [Stewart game so closely resembled Shuler had endeared him to a lot of our fans. I do believe had he stuck it out, then the guy who performed the best that spring would have gotten the job.
