You can't really prepare or scout for a guy that is as explosive and can finish as good as Russ can around the rim. He's going to have nights like tonight all season long. It's on us to help carry that load.". "I remember when the Kansas City Royals were trailing [in the Series] 3 1 and came back to win it in the style that they did," McCarver said. "You had the call by [umpire] Don Denkinger, fairly or unfairly, in the eighth inning of Game 6. I remember when I was going to conduct the postgame interview with [Cardinals manager] Whitey Herzog, I was up on the platform, they tore that platform down almost from underneath me when Don made that call that forced KC to come back and win, and then they won big in Game 7.".

She was still troubled by the gag order, however. "My concern is that they're minors. I'm not quite sure I fully understand. Gore completed the drive with a 5 yard touchdown run, cutting their deficit to 24 21. On Atlanta's ensuing possession, defensive back Chris Culliver gave San Francisco a great chance to tie or take the lead by intercepting a pass from Ryan and returning it to the Falcons 25 yard line. But San Francisco failed to gain a first down and came up empty when David Akers hit the uprights on a 38 yard field goal try.
