Pacquiao, boxing's only eight division world champion, nearly knocked out the 29 year old Horn in the ninth round but couldn't put him away. Still, most thought Pacquiao, who had been bloodied by multiple cuts from accidental head butts, was the clear winner. He wound up losing the fight and his 147 pound world title by a shocking unanimous decision on scores of 117 111, 115 113 and 115 113.

No. 1 thought going into it was to keep our hopes alive to make the playoffs, said Hundley, who had three touchdown passes. The end of the day, whatever happens, happens. Praying with my family and just talking, over time, I just felt like that was the best decision to make, Nelson said after the game, according to a Wisconsin State Journal report. Know that, if it top three rounds, you might as well go. I don think I could help it coming back to school.
