Also the whole ideology that football fans don want Kap in the NFL is a complete farce. Matter of fact, his signing actually might endear a team to a new demographic of fans, and dennis byrd jersey honestly could be a marketing wonder. I mean the guy did finish in the top 15 in jersey sales a season ago right and that a fact not a baseless opinion of no merit?.

Those are all strong suits. He really loves the game, works at it; he allows us to work around him. A lot of good qualities, but they emanate from the human being, the josh mccown jersey person.". I can imagine what people have said and written this week and I would think similar if we as a club had not tried everything. If the club said after the first call: 'Good idea, we wanted to call you actually because we don't want to have him' then it would be different. But we tried everything..
