Maybe the HOF starts inducting single great plays, thus his touchdown pass to Laettner against UK gets inducted. That is my spill. Keeping in mind this is just a model based on statistics, are they any active players (names in bold) you think should be higher than where they are? Example, Steve Nash, two time MVP, at 0.3713? looking at that list, first thing i notice is there are guys who have already been inducted who dont have a 100% chance according to their stats which is odd. As for grant hill, i could go wither way with him.

But he cannot be easily dismissed as a western patsy, a "collaborator", as his opponents have already dubbed him, or as Bush's "pet Muslim". Trained for more than a decade by the best Islamic scholars in the United Arab Emirates, Algeria, Morocco and Mauretania, Yusuf's learning commands considerable respect, particularly with the English speaking elites of traditionally Muslim states. Although he calls on Muslims to see what is good in western society, he has a long track record of criticising western decadence, injustice and impoverished spirituality.
