Being inspired by the recent clash between Federer and Djokovic in Wimbledon 2012, we as a group decided to explore the game theory dynamics of this celebrated matchup. Both these players have faced each other quite often at crucial junctures resulting in exciting matches. There are two aspects of this game that we wish to analyze.

There are many fine books out there in which one could find out a lot about those Redskins teams. One is my book, the Redskins From A to Z, Volume 1: The Games, which has accounts of every game the team played from 1937 through 2001 including, of course, the Gibbs years. But, like most Redskins history books, there is a lot of information about the team before 1981 and more than a decade's worth of games and events since recounted.

Lechler has been named an All Pro nine times during his career. As quarterback, punter and placekicker, he led East Bernard to the state quarterfinals his senior year, completing 87 of 101 (86.1%) passes for 1,640 yards and 11 touchdowns. In his high school career, he passed for nearly 5,000 yards and averaged 41.6 yards per punt.

Green Bay came into that game with all intentions of shutting down Frank Gore and the 49ers running back. In this, it worked out perfectly. Gore was held to 44 yards on 21 attempts. When browsing the Coca Cola website you will experience a more conservative style; there is not a variety of colors besides the traditional "Coca Cola red" in which, most their products are packaged and advertised. It is the complete opposite for PepsiCo, as their website flashes promotions for free music downloads and reminds browsers that they are the official drink sponsor of the NFL. The end of this experiment points out the benefit of using the "new" method to the conventional in most practical problem, especially in the survey of turbo machine.
