A TE who puts up 16 TDs should be paid for his production and I believe that was the point Gonzalez was making. TEs are at the bottom at the payscale behind kickers yet many (like Gonzalez and Graham) are as productive when it comes to making TDs as any receiver. In today league there are so many hybrid players that the leagues classification (caste system) only alex balducci jersey serves the owners allowing players to be paid not for their merit but according to a scale unless an organization feels like paying more.
